Marianne Woodend, Founder—The Bakery at No. 4

Marianne began her training at Kendal College and continued her career as a professionally trained pastry chef. She has worked at many high quality restaurants including with Simon Rogan at L'Enclume in Cartmel and the Drunken Duck, near Ambleside. Marianne then started the Bakery at No. 4 from her kitchen at home. Now a very popular Kendal café, she specialises in bespoke wedding cakes, celebration cakes, afternoon teas and dessert tables.

Non-members, * gentlemen and members from other WI branches are welcome to attend at the cost of £5.00
